This is therefore to give public notice, that if the owners or proprietors of the above-mentioned lands respectively, do not, within twelve Months after the date of this public notice, respectively pay the arrears of Quit-Rent due to his Majesty for the said lands, respectively as aforesaid, with the charge of this notice or notices being given to the said Receiver-General, that so much of the said lands respectively, will be sold at public vendue, or out-cry, as will pay the same respectively, with the charges of this notice; and such sale, pursuant to the act of the Lieutenant Governor, the Council, and General Assembly, in such cases made and provided.

GIVEN under my Hand, this First Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1767.

ANDREW ELLIOT, his Majesty's R. General.

On Monday last, arrived the Snow Mercury, Captain Haight, in 7 Weeks from Bristol, by whom we have the London Papers to the 8th, and the Bristol Papers to the 9th of May; from whence we have the following Advices.

M A D R I D, April 3.

ALL the moveable and immovable Effects taken from the Jesuits will be applied to the Establishment of Hospitals and other pious Foundations. It is Matter of Surprise that the whole Plan of the Expulsion of the Jesuits has been kept secret, as we are assured that the Commissaries appointed to form and carry it into Execution, have been employed thereon above a Year.

Genoa, March 28. The Regency have just dispatched two Vessels, with 200 Men on board, to the Senator Pinelli.

Leghorn, April 11. The last letters from Caprea advise, that the fortress still held out, although they had received no assistance. Capt. Oletta, a Corsican Officer, was killed by a musket ball, as he was viewing the trenches.

Rogliano (in Corsica) April 13. On the Second of this Month M. Pinelli made an Approach to the Island of Caprea, with the Gallies and Feluccas under his Command, with an intent to land the Troops under the Convent; but the Vessel, which M. Pinelli was on board of, was so much damaged, both by our Musquetry and Ordnance, that he was obliged to retire with the whole Squadron; and as soon as he was out of the Reach of our Shot, the Men were obliged to go to Work to repair the Vessel.

Notwithstanding this, some Feluccas soon after attempted to approach the Rock where the Citadel stands, in order to throw in a Supply of Ammunition and Provision, by the assistance of Ropes; but these Feluccas likewise received considerable Damage from our Artillery and Small Arms.

The Enemy say, they have not lost on this Occasion above forty Men; whether this be true or not, we wish not to kill, but to prevent a Disembarkation.

The Governor of the Fortress, as soon as he saw the ill Success of M. Pinelli, sent down upon the Rocks, ten Boys and seven Girls of the Country, whom he had taken with him as Hostages, at his retiring into the Citadel. He was no longer able to maintain them, there not having been in the Place, since the first day of the Month, more than twenty Mines [a Mine is a Corsican Measure.] of Corn. There are still Eighty-eight Soldiers, who have only Bread and Water, and the Water is very bad, as the Cisterns have not been looked after.

L O N D O N.

MAY 6. Commodore Palliser, on his arrival at Newfoundland, has received orders to station a frigate of war at each of the islands of St. Peter's and Miquelon, to prevent the English from carrying on any illegal traffick with the French.

We hear that a large quantity of ammunition and naval stores are now getting ready, to be shipped with all expedition for the use of the Corsicans.

A letter from Constantinople, dated the 16th of March, says, "One of the Secretaries of the Reis-Effendi was put under an arrest the 10th of this month; but by means of 200 sequins, which he gave to the Treasury, was set at liberty again on the 12th. The Chan of the Tartars is deposed, and his predecessor recalled to that dignity. The inactivity of the former in regard to the Georgians, whose motions continue to disturb the Porte, has doubtless given room to this change."

They write from Genoa, that a reinforcement of 350 men, had failed for Corsica, and that 500,000 livres were sent over to pay the Genoese troops in that Island.

They write from Genoa, that one of their vessels, which cruised on the coasts of Caprea, had found means to take on board a soldier, who had been let down by the Governor of the fortress in that Island with cords; and that it was in consequence of the advice received by this soldier, that the Senate came to a resolution of sending a reinforcement of 200 men to Admiral Pinelli.

Letters from Paris say, that the French Ministry have communicated to the Senate of Genoa the project for an accommodation received from the General Council of the Corsicans, together with the Memorial of General Paoli; but the Genoese having declared, that they could not accept of it, it is supposed that the expedition to the Isle of Caprea was undertaken in order to bring them to a compliance.

We hear there are upwards of 500 poor Journeymen Weavers in Spital-fields, their wives and children, entirely destitute of employment, through a decay in that branch of manufacture.

MAY 2. Letters from Madrid import, that besides the great Treasure in the Possession of the two Jesuits of Paraguay, who were lately arrested at Figuera, on their Way to Rome, some Papers were likewise found upon them, containing literal Proof of the Conspiracies at Quito, Lima, and Mexico; and which, it was thought, had contributed to accelerate the Ruin of that Society in the Spanish Monarchy.

It is said, in a Letter from Madrid, that the confiscated Effects belonging to the Jesuits, through the whole Kingdom of Spain, already amounted to the Sum of Seventy-five Millions of Piastras, exclusive of the Spoils expected from that Society in the Indies.

A considerable Quantity of Fire Arms was found in the Jesuit's Convent at Barcelona, where, on their being surprised, they threw into the Fire some large Bundles of Books and Manuscripts; but the Governor, we are told, recovered a great Part of them from the Flames.

It is said, a Commission is received from the Court of Lisbon for 50,000 Firelocks, and the like Number of Bayonets, to be made in England, for the Service of his Portuguese Majesty.

Notwithstanding the Promises that have been made for our fellow Subjects the North Americans, and the Honour that has been pawned by a certain great Man for them, we are assured, that they refuse to conform to an Act of Parliament respecting the Billeting of Soldiers. From their Conduct in this and some other Matters there is Reason to expect fresh Troubles from those Parts. G. G.

A considerable Bounty on the Importation of the American Hemp and Flax is now soliciting for.

The Right Hon. Charles Townshend, Esquire; Chancellor of the Exchequer, has received so much hurt from a fall, as to prevent his attending the service of Parliament.

It is said, that all sorts of salted meat and butter will be allowed to be imported duty free; as also rice, sago powder, and vermicelli, from our colonies in America, for a limited time.

Tuesday was held a General Court of the East-India Company; when, amongst other things a message was read which had been received from the Government, recommending to the Company not to make any increase in their dividend till such time as their affairs were further considered of; but, notwithstanding, a motion was made to divide twelve one half per cent. per ann. to commence at Midsummer next; which was agreed to. And a motion was made to put a stop to the law prosecutions which have been carrying on for some time, against some gentlemen that have been employed in the Company's service, which was likewise agreed to, and the Court adjourned till this day, when 'tis expected other matters of importance will come on.

From the BRUSSELS GAZETTE.

London, April 24. We are not without fear lest the measures taken for the establishment of a tax in America, should give rise to new troubles in most of our colonies. Precaution however will be taken to leave the repartition and collection of it to the assemblies of the different provinces, to whom the Governors are to make the propositions relative thereto, on the part of the K—, on condition that they charge themselves with remitting the produce of the tax to the Exchequer here, to be disposed of by parliament. The spirit of revolt and independency, which reigns in that country, give us no reason to depend on any good dispositions on their parts. G. G.

"The government received a few days ago some dispatches from the Earl of Rochfort, our Ambassador at the Court of France; and the Count de Guerchy hath had several conferences with our Ministers of State; all which concern the affairs of the Island of Corsica, and the mediation of the two Courts, in concert with other powers, for procuring an accommodation between the Corsicans and the Republic of Genoa. We have begun to establish a pretty advantageous commerce with the people of that island, without any way prejudicing the interests of the Genoese."

A letter from the Hague, dated April 28, says, "Signor Romanzo, the Corsican courier past by here lately in his return from London. He appeared remarkably gay, but made a profound secret of his negotiations. His Maitre d'Hotel was heard to say, that the taking Capraia had gained Corsica 100,000l. extraordinary credit from the English merchants."

They write from Corsica, that M. de Busby, said to be charged with a commission from the French court, had lately arrived there, and held several conferences with Count de Marbeuf, and proposes to be present at the general congress of the states of the island, to be held this month.

By the late seizure of the Jesuit's papers and effects in Spain, it is said to have been discovered, that an immense trade in gold and diamonds has for some years been carried on by these fathers from South-America, in which certain Spaniards in office in America and the West-Indies are discovered to have been secretly concerned.

They write from Minorca, that they had received advice of a vessel, belonging to Port Mahon, having been taken in the gulph of Venice by a Barbary corsair, and carried into Laroché.

Last week were imported at Liverpool, 250 barrels of wheat flour, from New-York; 1820 quarters of wheat, from Ostend; 185 quarters of wheat, 177 quarters of oats, 53 quarters of barley, 53 quarters of pease, and 9 quarters of buck-wheat, from Bremen; 845 quarters of wheat from Rotterdam and Hamburg; 417 firkins and 73 casks of butter, 20 barrels of pork, 135 barrels of beef, and 8 hog-heads of tallow, from Ireland.

Last week a ship arrived at Whitby, from Dantzick, with 1200 quarters of fine rye, which is now selling out at 3s. 9d. per bushel. A large quantity of foreign wheat and rye is also imported at Hull. CHARLES-TOWN, (South-Carolina) June 15.

On the 5th arrived here 240 more Irish settlers, from Belfast, in the Ship Nancy, Samuel Hannah, master.

We are informed, that since Mr. Seymour's arrival at Turk's-Island, a considerable vent is found there for British and American manufactures, with foreigners.

Brigadier General Haldiman is fortifying the town of Pensacola. A ship and snow from Campeachy were left there the 22d past; but no great trade could be carried on at that place with the Spaniards for want of goods. The Spaniards, we hear, were not yet in full possession of New-Orleans; but a considerable trade has taken place there between them and the English in that neighbourhood.

MAY 30. Friday the 15th instant arrived here, in the Ship Prince of Wales, Capt. Egger, from Belfast, upwards of 200 passengers from the north of Ireland; for the conveying of whom to the Irish settlement near Long Canes, the hon. commons house of assembly of this province, last Thursday, voted the sum of one thousand pounds currency, and ordered twenty shillings sterling bounty each, to be paid into their own hands.

Friday the 22d instant put in here, a sloop belonging to Rhode-Island, from a Whaling Voyage in the Southern latitudes, having proved successful, about 10 days before. The master informs us, that near 50 New-England vessels have been on the Whale fishery in the same latitudes this season, by way of experiment.

The price of RICE seems now to be fixed at 60s. per hundred, to which it rose about ten days ago.

Thursday last died, Capt. Thomas Morris, of the snow Thomas, lately arrived here from London.

The hon. William Drayton, Esq; who was, by Governor Grant, appointed Chief-Justice of East Florida, upon the death of the hon. James Moultrie, Esq; and has held, and exercised the duties of that office ever since, is now appointed thereto by his Majesty, on the death of the hon. William Grover, Esq; deceased, who never arrived to take possession of it after his appointment.

The 29th in the afternoon there was a great fall of Hail in this town, some of the stones not being less than Turkey's eggs; but the wind providentially not being high, no damage was done.

Peter De Lancey, Esq; D. Postmaster General for the Southern district of North America, returned yesterday from Virginia, having done all that was in his power to do in the present circumstances of the office under his care; so that it now only remains to find a fund to support riders, for continuing the communication by an inland Post between the provinces in both districts.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.

On Tuesday Night, Eleven o'Clock, a House in Race-Street, adjoining the Moravian-Meeting, was greatly damaged by Lightning; it first struck the Chimney, the Top of which it burst; then shattered the Roof, and descending by the Wall, tore the Cielings and Wainscoting, in every Story to the Ground Floor, in a most surprising Manner; ripped up the Floors, and broke the Windows all to Pieces.—The Goodness of Providence was remarkably shewn in the Preservation of the Family, who were in Bed in the Rooms, close by where the Lightning passed, but did not receive any Hurt.

July 6. By Captain Simmonds, from Lisbon, we learn, that a Brig bound from North-Carolina for Bristol, had put in there in Distress, having lost her Mainmast, Foretopmast, and Bolt-split, in a Gale of Wind.—During the Gale, the Mate, and two Seamen, were washed overboard, and drowned.

Arrived at Antigua. Captain Martin, from New-York; Captain Ruffel, from New-Haven; Captains Willard and Saltonstall, from New-London.

[By the HARTFORD POST.]

The Brig HARRISON, Captain LYDE, arrived at Boston, on Tuesday last from LONDON.

L O N D O N, May 9.

No fleet will sail towards the Tagus till the arrival of a categorical answer to some very important dispatches lately sent over to Lisbon.

MAY 12. Yesterday there was a full House of Commons, and it was expected they would sit late; some accounts from America, which were laid before them, for their Inspection, were the Object of the Debates.

Last week some dispatches said to be of importance were received at the Secretary of State's office from his Excellency Francis Bernard, Esq; Governor of New-England, which have already been laid before a cabinet council at St. James's.

MAY 12. The Active man of war, Capt. Carver, from Jamaica, and the Glasgow man of war, Capt. Vincent from Halifax are arrived at Spithead.

MAY 13. There were 33 houses or colleges of the Jesuit's in the province of Castile; 30 in that of Toledo; 31 in the Province of Andalusia; and 24 in that of Arragon; which made 118 in all.

The departure of two companies of the Royal regiment of Artillery for America is postponed till after the review of the three regiments of Foot Guards which is fixed for the 19th of next month.

MAY 14. It has been remarked at the West End of the Town as a Matter well worth noticing, that almost for a Month past there have not been less than 400 Members every Day in a certain Assembly.

The Providence, Clark, is sailed from Southampton, with troops for New-York.

B O S T O N, July 2.

Extract of a letter from London, May 11.

"A few Days before the House of Commons adjourned for the Easter Holidays, the Ch—r of the Ex—r opened his Budget, with very great Applause, even Mr. G—lle complimented him on the Occasion; among other things he made it appear, that besides paying the Navy and Army and all other Charges of Government for the last Year, he had sunk Three Millions, nine hundred Thousand Pounds of the National Debt, and assured them that the next Year he would discharge a much greater Sum, notwithstanding they had reduced the Land-Tax one Shilling in the Pound. He took an Occasion Yesterday to say, that it was reported out of Doors that he was for taxing America, I declare, says he, I am not, nor never was; I thought the Stamp-Act a very improper Measure, and us'd my Endeavours for the Repeal; and (holding out his Hand) he said he would cut off that Hand before he would vote for taxing America; "and if any of the Duties laid on Trade shall appear burthensome, nothing shall be wanting in me to remove them."

14th May 1767.

"Yesterday the Chancellor of the Exchequer mov'd the House for Leave to bring in the following Bills, which was agreed to.

An Act to permit ried from Spain and America.

An Act laying a and Painters Colour to the Colonies.

An Act for settling Judges, &c. in North America.

of the Exchequer

bring in the follow-

An Act to permit Wine, Fruit and Oil to be carried from Spain and Portugal directly to North-America.

An Act laying a Duty on China, Paper, Glass, and Painters Colours, shipped from Great-Britain to the Colonies.

An Act for settling a Salary on the Governor, and Judges, &c. in North-America.

An Act for establishing a Board of Revenue in North-America.

Captain Lyde left London May 14th, just as he came away some Gentlemen at the New-England Coffee-House, wrote the following Articles, and gave to some of the Passengers, viz.

The Parliament met the 13th of May upon American Affairs, and resolved that a Bill be bro't in after the following Manner,

That a Tax be laid on Painter's Colours, Paper, Glass and China. That the Americans may have Liberty of importing Lemons, Wine, Fruit and Oil directly from Spain and Portugal, subject to a Duty, the Duty on Wine to be 7l. per Ton. That the Duty on Tea remaining in England be taken off, and a Duty of three pence per lb. be laid on the Importation in America. That there be a Board of Customs, as also a Court of Exchequer in New-England. That the legislative Power of New-York cease—until they comply with the billating Bill.
That the Governors and Judges be made independent by increasing their Salary, which is to be paid out of the Revenues of the Customs.

George Grenville made a Motion to oblige the Americans to take an Oath of Allegiance and Obedience to the Parliament of Great-Britain, which was put to vote—for the Question 90, against it 180 odd.

In the Brig Harrison came Passenger Francis Bernard, Esq; eldest Son of his Excellency the Governor, and several other Gentlemen.

Captains Jarvis, Daverson, and Scott, were put up for this Place, but would not leave London in six Weeks after Captain Lyde. We hear there would be no Mail dispatched the second Saturday in May for New-York, but that the Packet would be detained until the American Affairs were settled in Parliament.

We hear from Milton, that Mr. Pelatiah Rawson, of that Place, about 70 Years of Age, last Wednesday Morning took his Hat and Staff, and walked to his Calf-pasture about 40 Rods from his House, from thence as its thought set off to see his Meadow, and was unfortunately lost. After much Time and Pains was taken was found last Sabbath Morning fallen down dead as he seem'd to be walking upon a thatch'd Bank. Upon Examination it appeared to the Jury of Inquest, that "he was drowned by the Providence of God."

NEW-LONDON, June 26.

We are credibly informed that Major General Lyman, has obtained a Grant of Land in Behalf of the Military Adventurers, 200 Miles Square, bounded on the River Mississippi, for a distinct Government, —But whether the Crown will grant any Encouragement towards the Settlement of this Colony, or who is to Command the same, is not yet known.

NEW-YORK, July 9.

Capt. Inglis, from Cadiz, confirms the Account given in the Papers of the Expulsion of the Jesuits from Spain; and that a great Number of them were embarking at Cadiz for Civitta Vecchia, in the Pope's Dominions. He heard no talk of the Manilla Ransom at Cadiz, but says the Æolus Frigate sailed from thence for England, a few Days before he left it, with a great Quantity of Cash on board, on Account of the Merchants; and the Aquilon was to sail in a few Days after him, with some of the same Commodity on Board, for Italy.

One William Justis, was struck dead by a Flash of Lightning at Trenton, on Tuesday Evening last Week.

Capt. Baldwin from Barbados, but last from Connecticut, left that Island about 35 Days ago; and acquaints us, that such a general Drought has prevailed there this last Season, that few of the Planters will have more than half Crops, and many Pieces of Cane not worth cutting at all.

On Tuesday last Week, in the rising Gust we had here, the House of Mr. Abraham Dow at Albany, was struck by the Lightning, first shattering to Pieces
the Kitchen Chimney, rendering a Feather Bed useless, (which is thought to be somewhat extraordinary,) thence proceeded to the Cellar, where it rip'd off all the wooden Hoops from a Pipe of Wine, leaving the Iron Ones, which as it lay on the Ground it is tho't conducted into the Earth. Some Persons were stunned, but recovered.

On Monday last arrived, the Amity's Production, Captain Thomas Noble, with 99 Soldiers on board, under the Command of Capt. Marsden. They left the Cove of Cork, the 20th of May, in Company with 5 other Transport Ships for this Place, and 3 for Philadelphia, under the Command of Agent Henry Francis Evans, which Capt. Noble parted from in the Night, Lat. 37. 27. Lon. 68, 12, but the next Day all the other 5 that were bound here arrived, viz.

The Hunter, Capt. Hunter, Scarborough, Capt.
Tate; The Amity's Production, Captain Noble; having on board the 16th Regiment, under the Command of Col. Gabbit.—The Amity's Assistance, Capt. Knowles; The Lyde, Capt. Watson; The Eagle, Captain Slightholm; having the 26th Regiment, under the Command of Major Templar.

The 26th Regiment we hear, is station'd at Perth-Amboy, and other Towns in New-Jersey, for which Place the 3 Ships were to sail again Yesterday.

The Ships for Philadelphia are, the Amity's Benediction, Captain —; The Liberty, Captain Cornforth; The Amity Admonition, Capt. —;
having on board the 18th, or Irish Royal Regiment, under the Command of —.

We are informed by some Gentlemen in this Fleet, that on the Passage, they saw many Vessels, but spoke only one, viz. in Lat. 27, 40, Lon. 46, and a half, a French India Man, homeward bound having on board a Governor and his Family, several Officers, and Troops, (but learned no News from her) she had been in Company with an English homeward bound India Man, from whom they parted the Day before.

We hear the 28th and some other Regiments, are immediately going Home.

We cannot find that any later Papers came by these Ships, than those we had from Bristol, nor any remarkable News.—Lord Chatham had greatly recover'd his Health—there was no likelihood of his resigning his Office, or of the Grenvillian Party coming into the Ministry.—Great Commotions about the Affairs of the East-India Company—Captain M'Bride, in the Jason, was arrived from the Coast of Patagonia in the South-Seas,—confirms the Account given by Commodore Byron with Regard to the Place, and Size of the Inhabitants—stayed on Falconers-Island 12 Months, to try the Soil and Climate, which he found to be very good,— Fertile, Healthy and Temperate.

Commodore Samuel Hood, in the Romney, had sail'd for Halifax, to succeed Admiral Durel, as Commander in Chief of the Ships on the American Station.

On Monday last, in consequence of an advertisement in the New-York Journal, of last Thursday, concerning a Robbery committed on board a vessel, Capt. Smith, at Philadelphia, one — Campbell, who appeared to be a seafaring man, has been in this city some time, and left it a few days before, was taken up, examined and committed to gaol; it is said the gilt trunk mentioned in the advertisement, and a considerable sum of money was found in his possession, and that he has confessed the fact for which he was taken up.—
He was just come from Philadelphia in the Stage, and was observed to have the Trunk in his possession, which when his fellow passengers came to New-York, and saw the advertisement, caused them to suspect him, and led to the discovery.
Arrived at Charles-Town. Capt. Bardin from Rhode-Island.

To be sold at public Vendue,

On Thursday the 27th of August next, at the Merchant's Coffee-House;

A Very valuable tract of timber land: (lately belonging to the children of Richard Bradley, Esq;) It contains about 817 acres, and lies two miles and a half, directly back of New-Burgh, on Hudson's-river;—it is well known, and has been always esteem'd the most extraordinary timber-land of any in that part of the country, both as to quantity and quality; there is abundance of large tall exceeding fine chestnut. As timber is now become scarce in the neighbourhood of this tract, and as it lies about two miles from the landing, and a very good road, the tract on account of the timber is justly esteem'd very valuable.—Any person inclining to purchase before the day of sale, may apply to GABRIEL LUDLOW, at New-York, or WILLIAM DONALDSON, at New-Brunswick. The title is indisputable; one third of the purchase money being paid down, time will be given for the remaining two thirds, upon security, if required.

FIVE POUNDS Reward.

RUN-away from the Subscriber,

living in New-Jersey, near Prince-Town, the 31st of May last, an Irish Servant Man named Francis Matthews, but is thought to have changed his Name to that of Richard Brown, aged about 20 Years, about 5 Feet 8 Inches high; he is a Weaver by Trade, of a fair Complexion, somewhat freckled, gray Eyes, short black Hair, little or no Beard, and has a down cast look when he speaks to Strangers; had on when he went away an old half worn Felt Hat, a new brown coloured homespun Coat, with white Metal Buttons down the Breast, and none on the Hips, lin'd with Flannel of a lightish colour, a white Flannel Jacket with Sleeves and no Pockets, a Tow Shirt, Oznaburg Trowsers, pale blue Yarn Stockings, with Brass Buckles in his Shoes; he also took away a Needle work'd Pocket Book, mark'd John Hill, with between Forty and Fifty Shillings in Money, and Writings to a considerable Value.—Whoever takes up and secures said Servant in any of His Majesty's Gaols, so that his Master may have him again, shall have the above Reward, paid by me

BENJAMIN CLARKE.
N. B. All Masters of Vessels and others, are forbid harbouring or carrying him off at their Peril.

New-York, June 25, 1767.

WHEREAS on Tuesday Evening last, a young Man about 5 Feet and a half high, well set, fresh coloured, freckled Face, sandy coloured Hair, had on a red Waistcoat without Sleeves, a Check Shirt and black Breeches, came to my Shop, near the Oswego-Market, told me he was the Son of Mr. John Riker of this City, that he was lately come from Sea with Captain Prince, to whom he had served an Apprenticeship, and was just then free;—that he was ordered by Captain Prince (who frequents my Shop) on his Account, to take of me such Clothes as were necessary for his out fit.—Not doubting the Truth of a Story, told with so many probable Circumstances, I delivered him such Goods as he chose, viz. Three Yards of blue and Pink mixt seven Quarter broad Cloth, yellow double gilt Metal Buttons, with all other Trimmings suitable for a Coat and Breeches, amounting in the whole to £. 7-1-1, which he carried away. But next Morning I discover'd that he had no Orders from Captain Prince, was neither the Son of Mr. Riker, nor known to either of them; nor have I yet been able to discover who he is.—There are therefore to desire, that if any of the said Articles are offer'd to sale, carried to any Taylor to be made up, or can be otherwise discovered, that they may be stopped, the Man secured, and Notice given to me; for which, if the Goods are recovered a handsome Reward will be given in Proportion to the Service done, besides all reasonable Charges paid, by

To the Printer of the Pennsylvania Chronicle.
Both heaven and hell have their foundation within us. Heaven primarily lies in a refined temper, in an internal reconciliation to the nature of God; and to the rule of righteousness. The guilt of conscience, and enmity to righteousness, is the inward state of hell.
Dr. WHITCHOTE'S Moral and Religious Aphorisms.

T has given me great concern to observe the baneful influence which bad and worthless examples are likely to have upon some young men of my acquaintance, who are in possession, and have the prospect of affluent fortunes; and are also blest with good capacities, improved by all the advantages of education, which their anxious friends could obtain for them—How much they are in danger of disappointing the hopes which their friends had formed of their becoming reputable and useful members of the community! The unbounded liberalism into which some unhappy fellow-beings, have already plunged, and the difficulty, if not impossibility, of their being ever recovered to a state of cool reflection, would make any attempt towards assisting them, look romantic: One may, however, make use of the terrible effects which their vicious and extravagant course, have sometimes quickly produced, both upon the mental faculties, and the bodily constitution, as warnings to the young and unbackney'd in the ways of buckism and vice.—To see a man, in the prime of life, whom we knew a few years ago, possessed of valuable and agreeable talents, and to have a strong and vigorous state of health, now, by his various frolics and excesses, enervated to such a degree, as to be scarcely able to move about, and his mind so debauched as to be unable to support a part in any rational conversation, or indeed in any at all, without such unmeaning oaths and horrid imprecations, or such details of the violation of human and divine laws, as shocks common sense, and disturbs all the delicate feelings of a mind in love with goodness! To view such a rake, thus worn out with wanton midnight revelling, and perhaps, after squandering a plentiful estate, reduced to depend on others for subsistence! One would think him a constant lesson of instruction and caution to all that can observe and reflect: Yet, alas! how many, instead of making this proper use of such objects, do rather conclude, that they can conduct themselves in pursuit of the deceitful Syren, falsely called pleasure, with more order and prudence, and so venture into one path or another in this region of phantoms and imaginary good, until, by degrees, all restraint is lost, and they become immersed and habituated in sensual lusts, and practices which lead to total perdition. How many bright and promising youths have there been, that if they had been told the consequences, when they first deviated from that regularity of conduct, which a virtuous education had helped to form; and to what an enormous height of folly and madness they should arrive at, would have been extremely shocked, and ready to cry out with Hazael, "Am I a dog, that I should do this great thing?" Yet, by frequenting such company, as to reconcile themselves to their wicked practices, have contrived to dress up, or represent virtue and religion in ridiculous garbs and appearances, and then laughed at their own hideous figures; these unwary youths have gradually joined in such infernal mirth, and have added their roar of applause, until the voice of conscience has been silenced, and they have become as bad, if not worse than their wretched associates! And, oh! who can conceive, much less describe, the agony of heart, the rending of soul, which attends the thoughtful parents of such a profligate son? To see their child, intended by the Great Creator a candidate for a glorious immortality in a future state, and whom they have conscientiously endeavoured to forward and assist in obtaining the necessary qualifications for that enduring bliss, by teaching him to delight in the practice of every thing useful and beneficial to mankind here! (for some such parents there have been)—To see these noble purposes wholly frustrated, and instead thereof the most distressed prospect that can be formed, in the cases of those that of all mankind are the dearest to them? To see a life of continual mischief and scandal in hourly danger of being suddenly closed, probably without a pause for reflection and repentance? And, above all, the apprehensions of what must follow! The punishment due to, and allotted by infinite justice for the abuse, and prostitution to the vilest purposes, of abilities, opportunities, and such a multitude of other mercies as cannot be numbered.

I hope what I have hitherto said, has not been foreign to my principal design, which is to put my young readers upon their guard, and in the most affectionate manner to advise them, that on their entrance into active life, they more cautiously and resolutely shun the contagion of wicked examples, than they would the plague or the most venomous of all poisons: And indeed there is no subject that ought to engage the attention of those that are connected with the rising youth, so weightily as that of taking all proper opportunities of impressing upon their minds the absolute necessity of a continual care in this respect; for of all the engines of the destroyer, there is none more fruitful in havoc and ruin, than bad company: Nor let this term be misapprehended. It is by no means to be confined to people of the lowest class, or such unhappy creatures as are commonly the objects of punishment, by the execution of just and necessary laws for preservation of good order and government. A man of the brightest understanding, greatest learning, and other fine accomplishments, if his heart is bad; if he takes delight in putting a fool's coat on those sacred foundations and barriers of private and public happiness, religion and virtue; if he is fond of ridiculing and sneering at men for their public spirit, and for giving any or every demonstration that goodness and benevolence can be shewn by: Such a man is the most dangerous of all evil companions; because his superior abilities open a way for his poison to be more greedily received, to enter deeper, and to be more difficult of cure. Wiflings and understrappers will ply and repeat their artful machinations to deceive, and sink further and further into wickedness and misery, and thereby do as much mischief as they can to those who ungardedly listen to their frothy and vile discourse: But the man of sense and ingenuity, who thus engages in the detestable cause of seduction, is an able engineer, a sort of master workman; his fatal success is often very great, and without doubt his reward will be dreadfully proportioned to his deserts! Such a man, if we are obliged to do any business with him, should be approached with the same kind of fear, that the sight of a rattlesnake or a panther would occasion, and this would keep us from the danger of his tongue or teeth.

LONDON, April 28.

By the plan of Accommodation between the Government and the East-India Company, [mentioned in our last,] the great objection about a partnership in trade, and a confusion of accounts, is avoided, as also the difficulty and hazard of remitting the revenue to England; the government will receive whatever the company can divide; it will therefore be for the interest of government to support the company; and it will ever be the Interest of the company to divide as much as possible. The present capital stock of the company being 3,200,000l. and the dividend of ten per cent, producing 3,200,000l. the stock of the Chancellor of the Exchequer will be the like sum of 3,200,000l. and the present sum paid to government will be 320,000l. yearly. But the stock and dividend of the Chancellor of the Exchequer will rise as that of the company is increased; and as there is no doubt but upon this plan the company's dividends might be immediately raised to twenty per cent. the Chancellor of the Exchequer might receive a dividend of 640,000l. per annum, as it is allowed on all hands, that the net produce of the revenue and the company's trade will not be less than two millions a year sterling; and this dividend of twenty per cent. to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the company together, will amount to no more than 1,280,000l.

Letters from Dantzick, of the 27th ult, say, "In the new treaty of commerce, concluded between Russia and Great-Britain, some stipulations are made to the advantage of the merchants and inhabitants of this country."

Letters from Hamburg inform that the Prussian agents are now buying up immense quantities of salt-petre both in Holland and Russia, for the use of the King's magazines.

15. We are informed, the snow, yesterday morning, about Chigwell in Essex, lay several inches thick, and that the ditches are full of ice and snow, also that great damage has been done to the gardens, by the blossoms being almost destroyed by last night's severe weather.

There are now lying in the Thames, below bridge, as near as can be computed, about 170 barges, deeply laden with corn. The oldest watermen do not remember such a number at any one time, notwithstanding which the price of corn is still kept up.

April 25. Letters from Madrid advise, that the attorneys of the jesuits, and all those who managed their affairs were closely guarded, and would be obliged to give an exact account of all the possessions of that society which are declared confiscated to the profit of the crown.

Directions to search for COAL.

WHEREVER there is iron ore, coal is certainly near; but in order to find coal, by noting the surface of the ground, observe the following directions: Wherever there is Bath or freestone on the surface, no coal is to be expected to the South or South-East, but the search must be directed North and South-West. Next to the freestone, seeking in this direction, you will find sandy rock, with large harder stones interspersed; then white hyas-stone, or lime stone with grey flint upon a stratum of marble of various colours; then proceeding still in the same direction, clay over a stratum of the pewant rock, in which there are frequently veins of iron, with lumps of pure coal and thin veins of coal, between the layers of stone in this stratum; next to this, and often mixed with it, is the coal, which is discovered by the ground's being springy, and subject to green moss, among which water frequently stands in little puddles, the bottom and sides of which are covered with yellowish slime. As these several streaks of earth lie in the order described, so any streak may be found by the discovery of any one; consequently, which ever is first found will be a guide to the coal.

PHILADELPHIA, June 29.
Captain Mills, from North-Carolina, informs, that on his outward Passage, on the 30th ult. about 12 Leagues to the Northward of Cape Hatteras; he saw two Schooners ashore on the Beach, but does not know who they were, or from whence they came.
Capt. McCutcheon, from Belfast, on the 15 ult. in Lat. 48: 28, spoke with Captain Smith, of Belfast, bound from Charlestown for Cowes, out 29 Days, who informed him he had taken up the Captain and Crew of a Brig that was foundering; she was from the Bay of Honduras, but he could not learn the Vessel or Capt. Name, nor where bound.
Captain Todd, from Madeira, informs, that on his outward bound Passage, on the 25th of March, about eight o'Clock at Night, in Lat. 33: 45, Long. 29: 27, being then in a hard Gale of Wind, and heavy sea, scudding under his square-sail, he had like to have run on board a double decked Brig, which he took to be American built, lying in the Trough of the Sea, without any Person on board, or any sail set; her Fore-top-sail tore all to Pieces, her Main-top-mast gone, and her Boom out of the Crotch.
